CHRISTOPHER JAMES GORDON

Chris,

What an honor! As the first one to sign your book, I feel like I have to be honest.

Chris,
We never forget how we met - working on the float! Remember when you got mad at Dave D. & I for working the corn on one of those cars?! Oops! I wish you much luck and much happiness next year (see you there) and through all years to come!
Love, Melissa

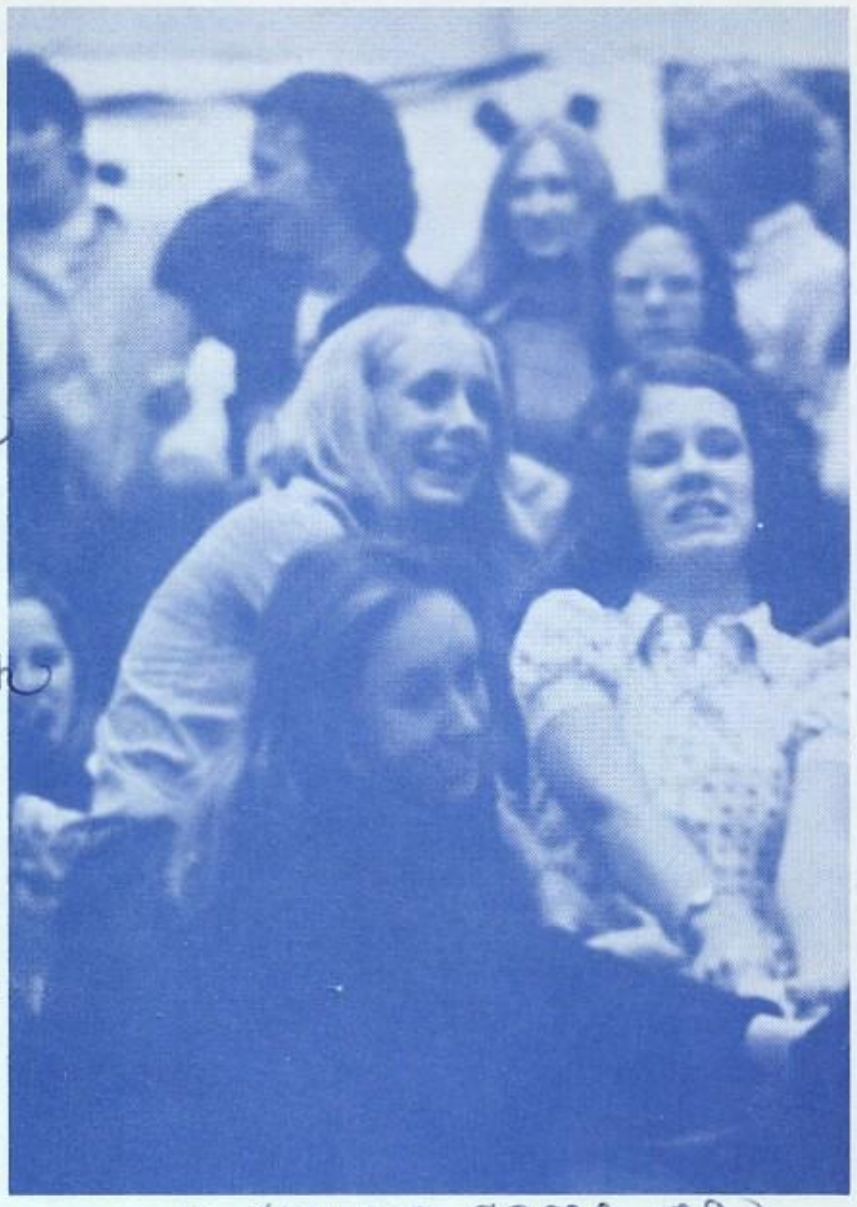
Christopher ☆.... ♡

seriously - you should read Atlas Shrugged after that it almost makes you shudder to read a poem like ↑ ~~that~~ oops that above. I can see you thinking along the Ayn Rand lines... give it a try if you have the time! ♡ Take care at MSU — oops! please delete!!

I'm sorry to see you goin' so soon... perhaps I will see you at that Three Dog Night concert!! O Lord — forgive the mistake. Hope all goes well at U of M! If I'm in the area ← what a line ♡- I'll pop in. Wishin' you all the best.

Take care! Love, Sue O. ♡

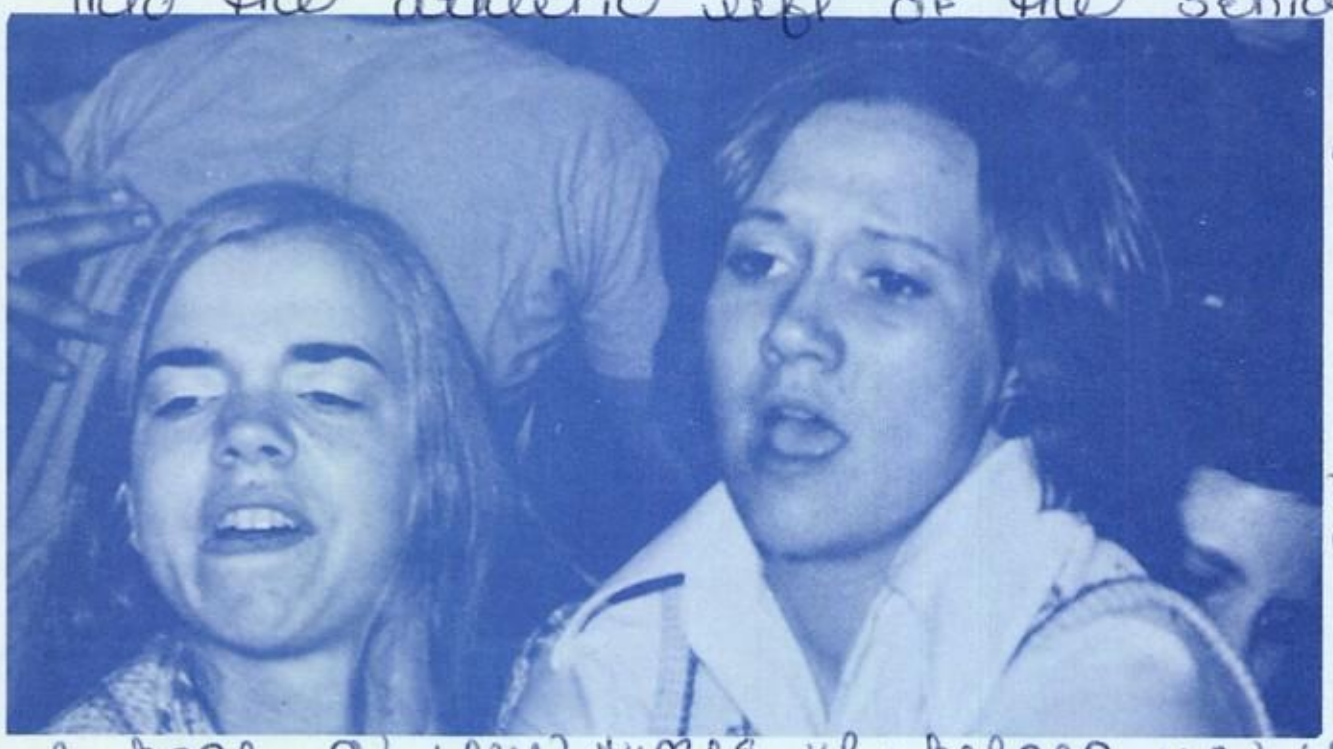
It seems you have found a special someone in Nancy, but as things seem to work out for me it didn't work out so I'm still looking. Thanks so much for sharing my thurts and helping out like around ~~homecoming~~ Sadie Hawkins time. In the 2 years that I've known you I don't think I've ever seen you so content, sure of yourself or happy as you seem now. You may be apprehensive about both but you certainly don't show it. Both of us have gone through a time when we aren't sure what we want, what our friends mean to us or satified with what we've made of ourselves at Kaheer. I watched you go through it and now I watch myself wonder now at what I've become and what kind of mark I've left. Will sadness and tears come or I leave feeling unsatified looking for will something else better I think it will be the latter. that we what I wish for you from life always something better than what you have at that moment. Always think of me with kindness and remember me as I waddled through your life. Keep in touch and promise you'll see me over the summer. And never forget the immortal words of Kar Korev: "No you can't punt me down the hill!!!



But you DID....

Dear Christopher J.

What can be said to the person who at times has tried my patience to the point and in my utmost affection all I can muster is the tearful phrase "Go suck on a flower!" you have caused my hormones to get duckbumps by the thought of each morning greeting your smiling face, along in Mrs. Barnes closet. The hard work, the intense study into the athletic left of the senior mall. Well we proved jocks aren't dumb but knowing some of our friends I'm not too sure. We didn't learn too much about B.S, but we certainly discovered many of the hopes, fears, disapointment of each other.



I hope a few times I helped in your understanding the female mind. And you were very special to me in finding me a date for a bottle of champagne, only you forgot to invite them to the cocktail party. Converted with broken windows, the best float that Kahler's ever seen up at rabbit deer for some damn juniors. The Dance and our private party in the back room. An Andover football game with some ABSURD students and Hot Buttered Rum. Swamp water, Tiger, the little red car that mostly never wasn't, my parties some good, some bad. Sadie Hawkins private hall, from too much food, library, Miss Craig I demand your presence in this room, those directorys, 4th hour. and so many more.

Chris - Notice who I'm signing across from? We've really had some good times & remember junior high? (or would you rather not remember...) I'll never forget working on the float at your house & flirting with Matt and fighting with Benjie! Sadie Hawkins was really a riot! The way you & Andy dance is crazy! Thanks for saying yes! Cedar Point was quite an experience with you and your Monkey Noises! Unfortunately its rubbed off on Andy & me because we're always saying "oooo!" That was pretty funny though! Through all the jokes I really do think a lot of you. The 4 of us should get together this summer - fill a cooler and use the backseat (ha!) I'll never forget your party after Prom - it was great! I'm really going to miss you when we go away to college - Come visit me! Best of Luck to

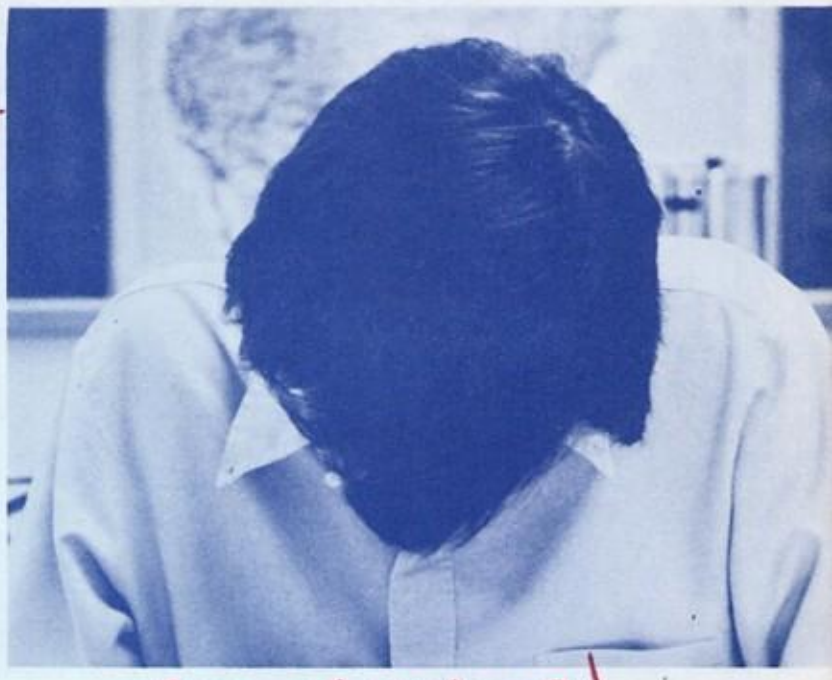
CHRIS-

FROM ONE BEER LOVER TO ANOTHER. DURING THE PAST YEAR WE HAVE RACKED UP QUITE A LIST OF VERY UNUSUAL THINGS. IN BETWEEN GETTING TO KNOW THE FLOOR AND NANCY THINKING OF EXPLANATIONS FOR MISSING MATERIALS WE'VE DEVELOPED A PRETTY GOOD FRIENDSHIP. BEING THE SECOND BEST DANCER AT ALL DANCES I WOULD LIKE TO KNOW HOW YOU (THE [redacted] BEST DANCER) ARE GOING TO LAST WITHOUT ANY MORE HIGH SCHOOL DANCES TO GO TO? LET ME KNOW IF YOU THINK OF ANY MORE STUPID NOISES TO MAKE BESIDES THE MONKEY CALL.



GOOD LUCK ALWAYS

P.S. SOUL TRAIN EAT YOUR HEART OUT!

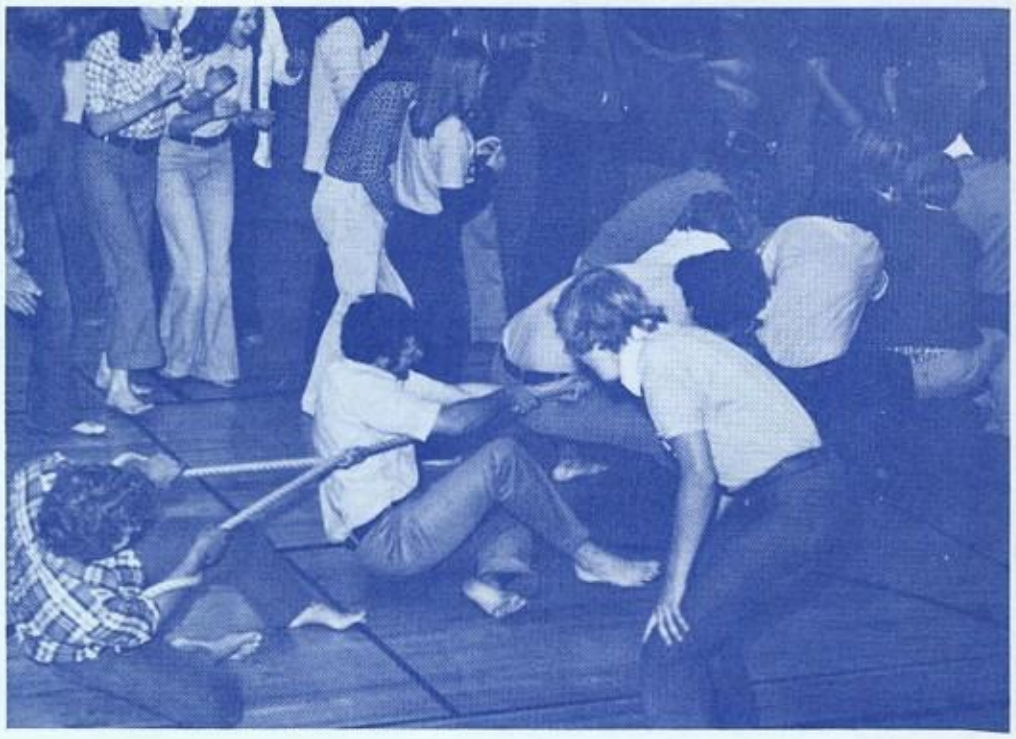
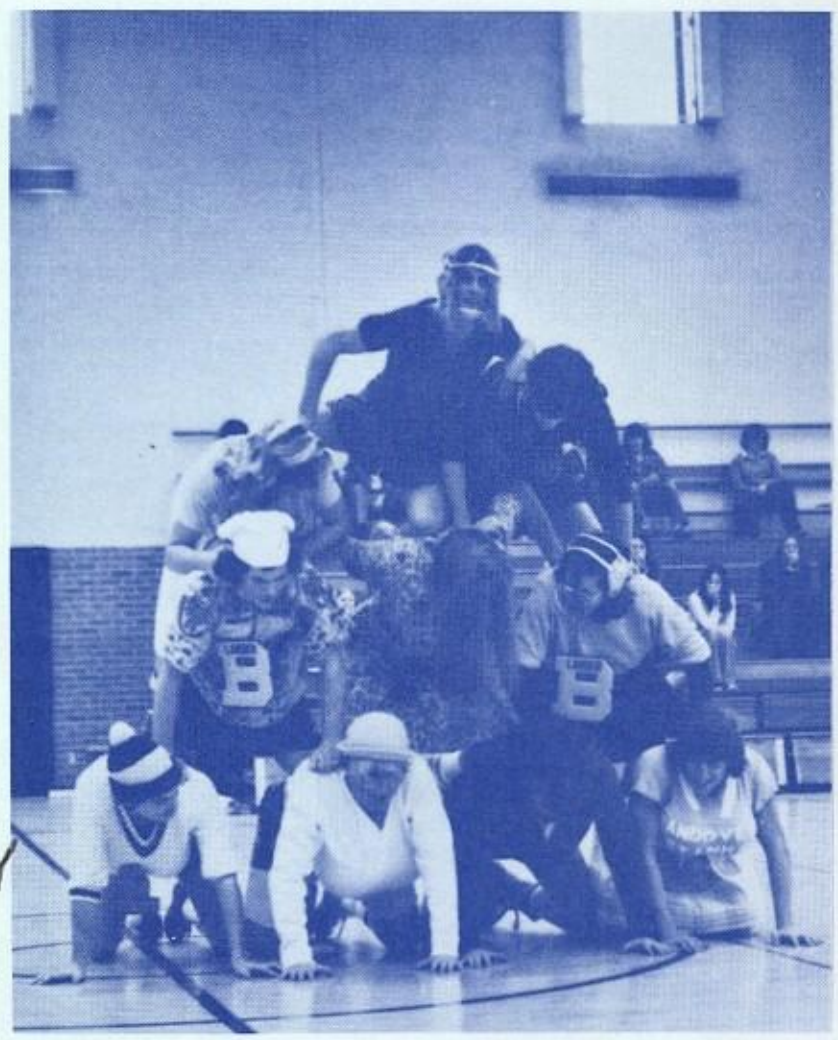
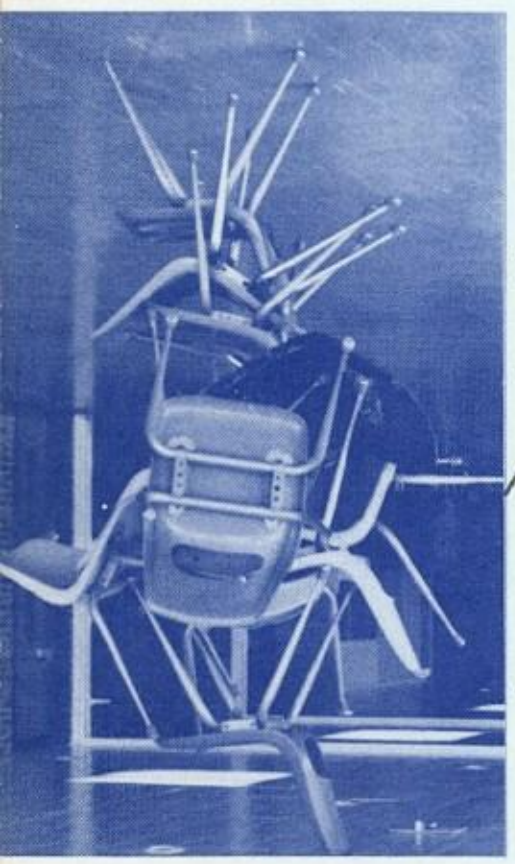
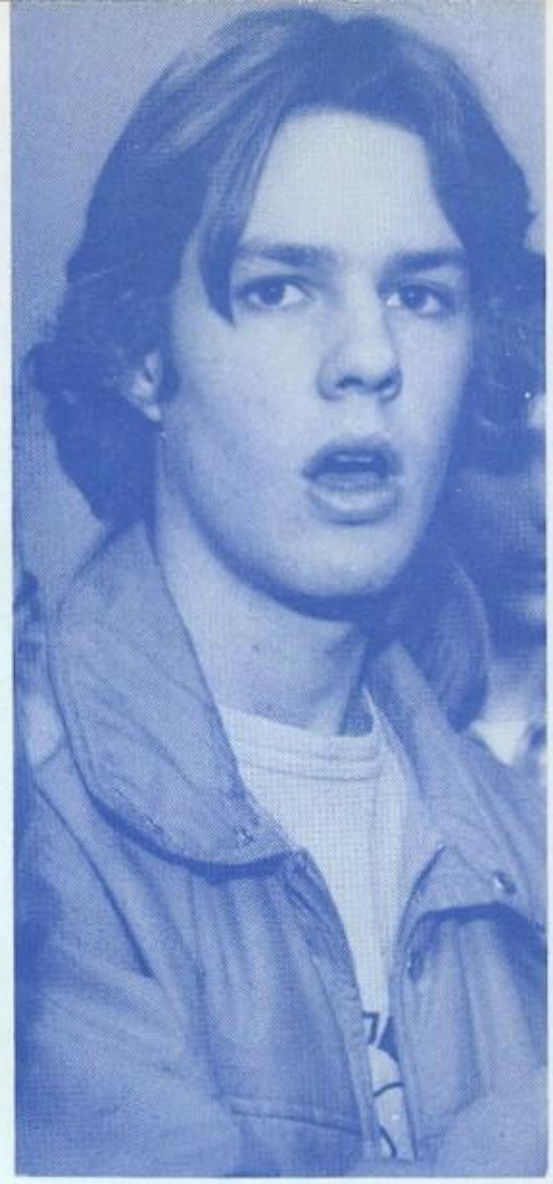
I just thought I'd throw that in, because I know how much you love remembering Mrs. Verlinden. What can I say. We tore up your barn to build the float. We all froze our tails off at the Thanksgiving Day parade. We left you with tons of food after the from. You got pulled over by an Ohio cop coming back from C.P. (he didn't see that, because you flew past us like we were standing still). All in all a pretty good year. Now for the words of wisdom. When you're feeling ~~too~~ low, and wondering why the hell you left for school so early, think of me working my tail off at the Naval Academy, and have yourself a good laugh. Hope to see you when I get a leave.

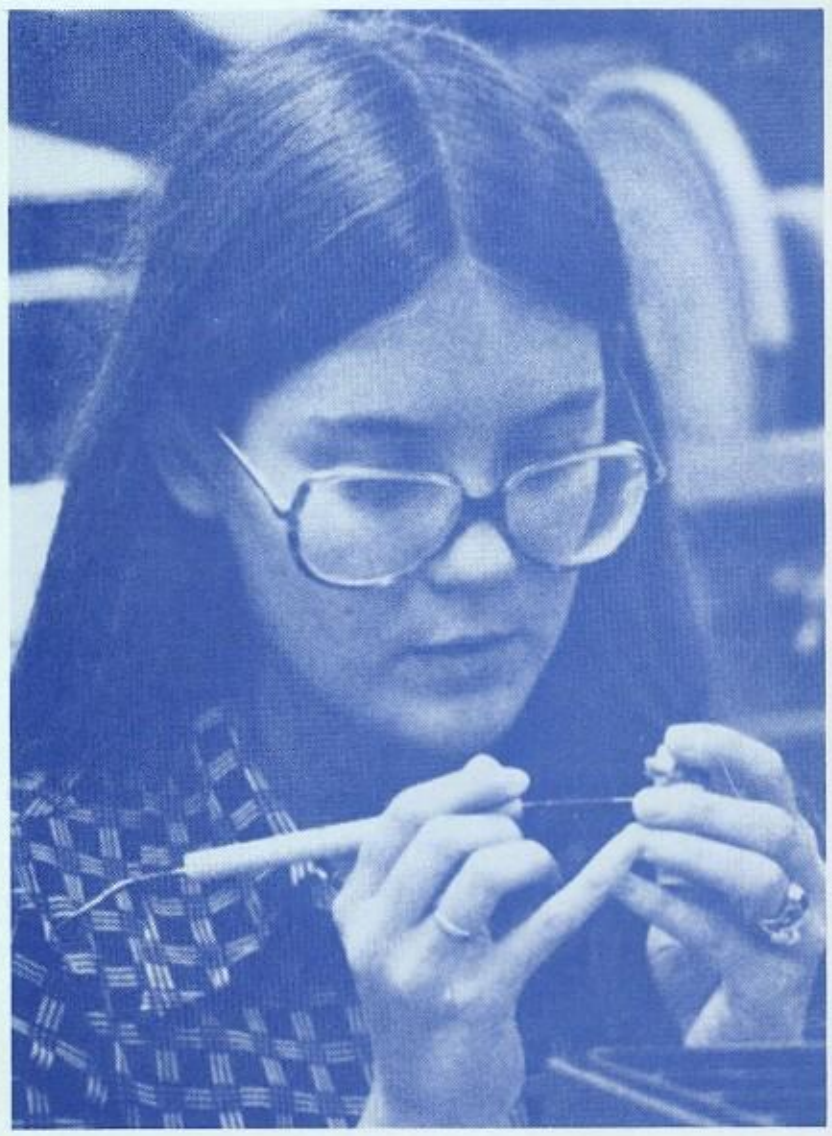


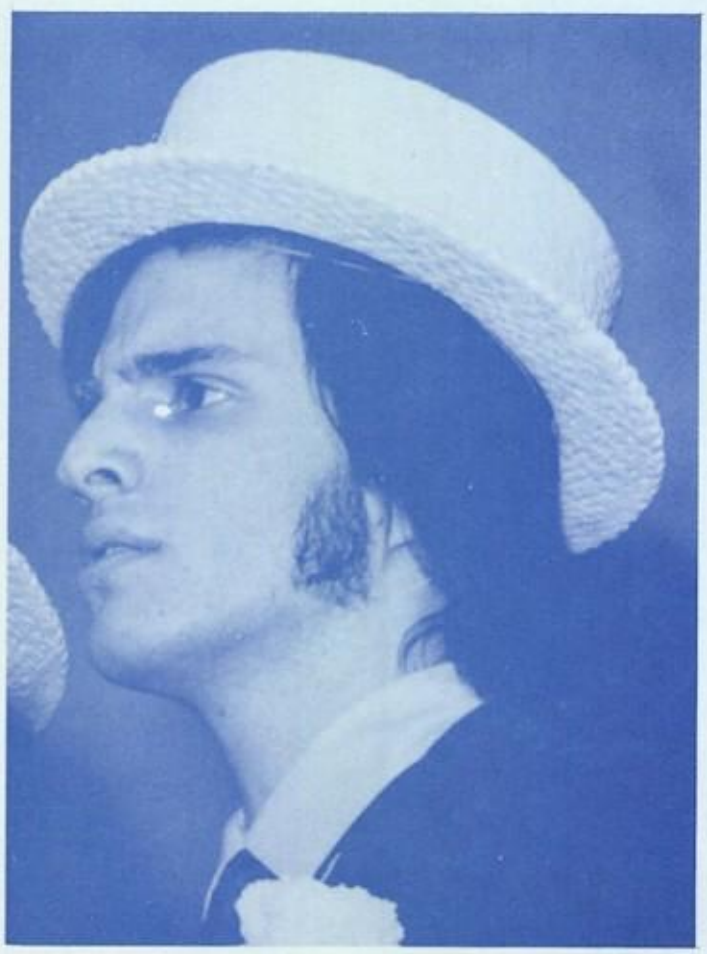


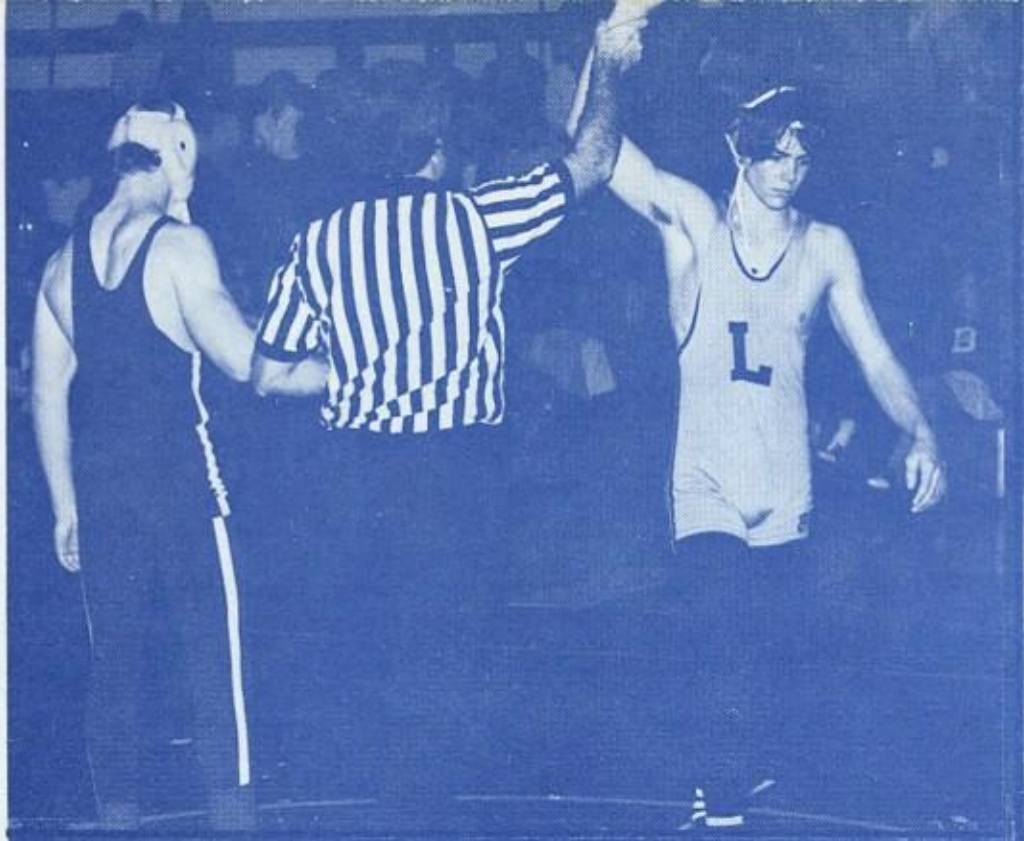


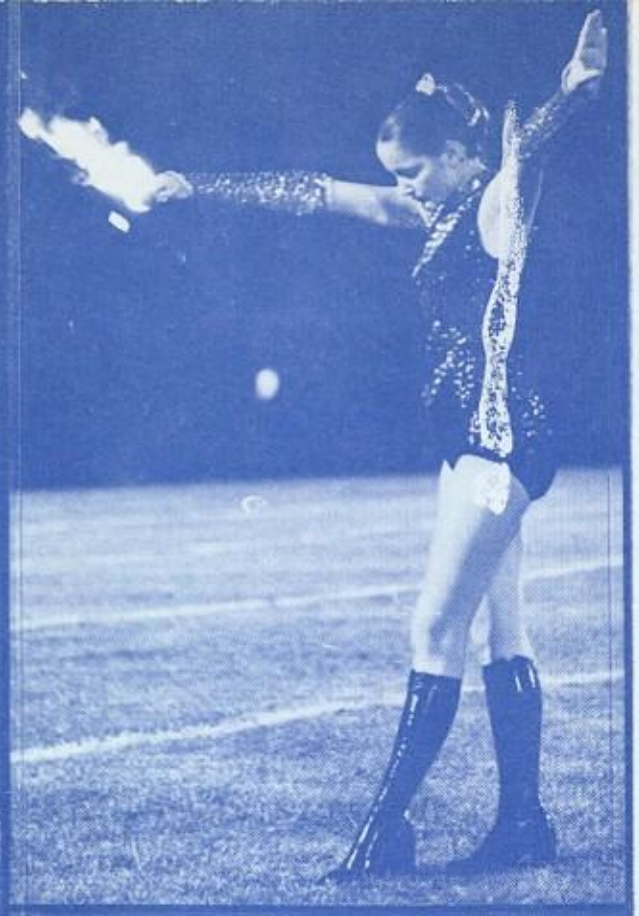
Chip

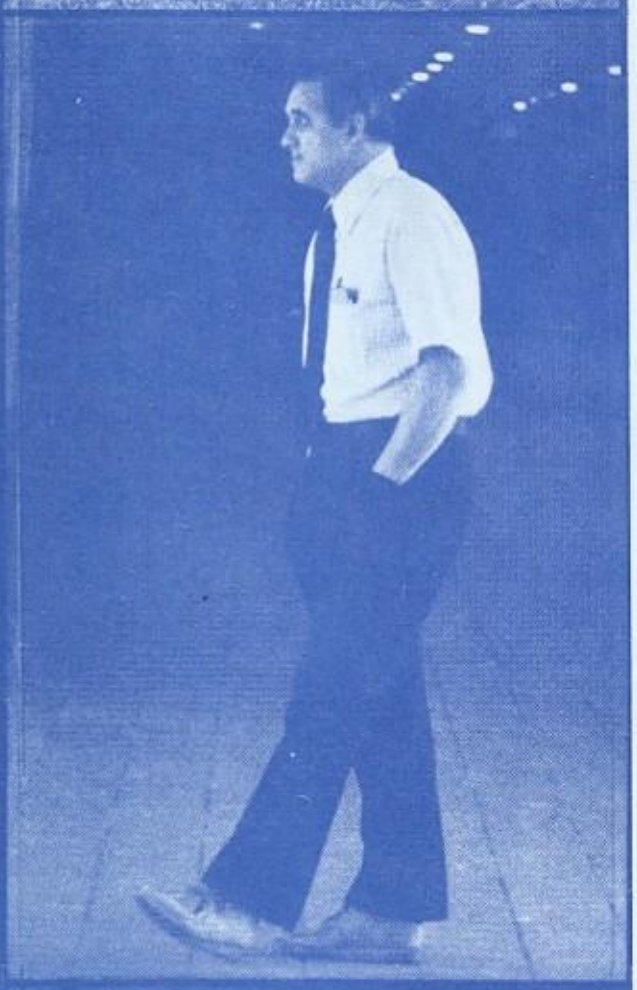


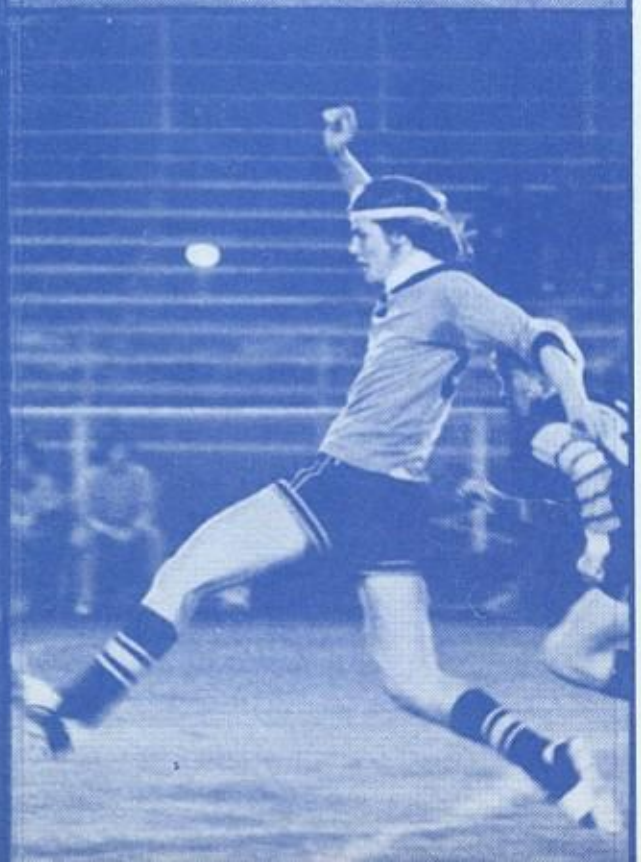












Christopher James Gordon,

I've never known anyone as insane as you. From wrecking my mother's table-cloth to after-prom activities, it's been real. You are such a rowdy when you want to be. Be that way more often and you just might Drive Ellis insane enough to move out next year. Talk about the "Odd Couple"!

Study hard and do well, you're bound to go places.

Luv,
Kathy

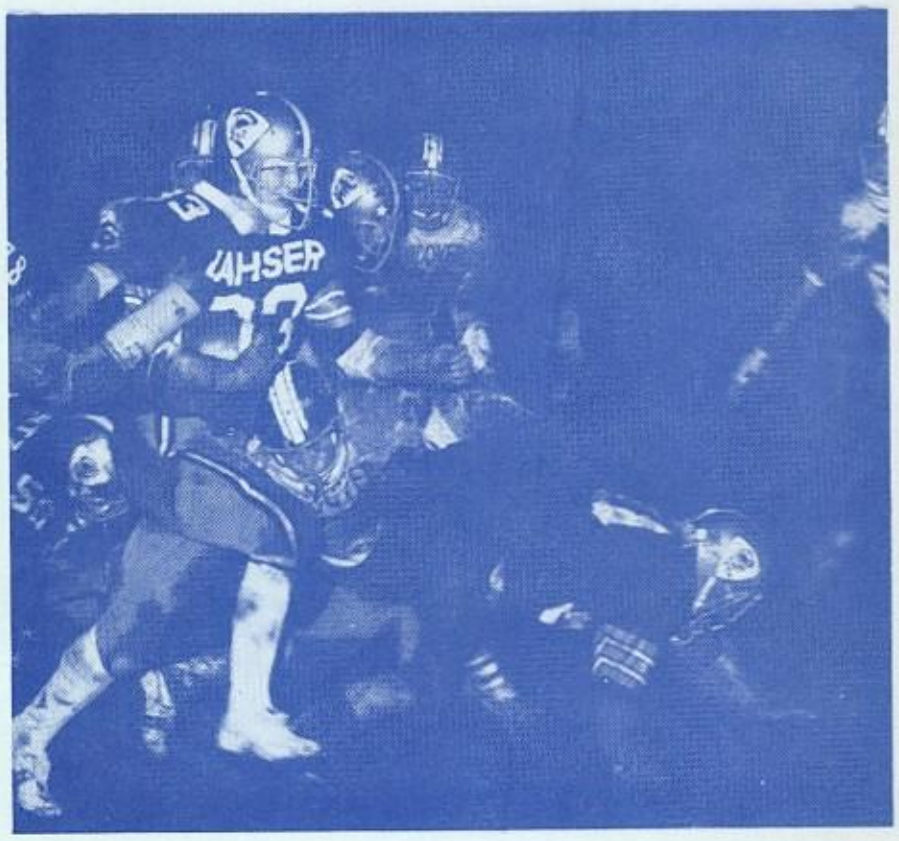
Dear Christopher J. -

All the wild times and all the very serious one's now blur into one - all we'll have when it's finally all over.

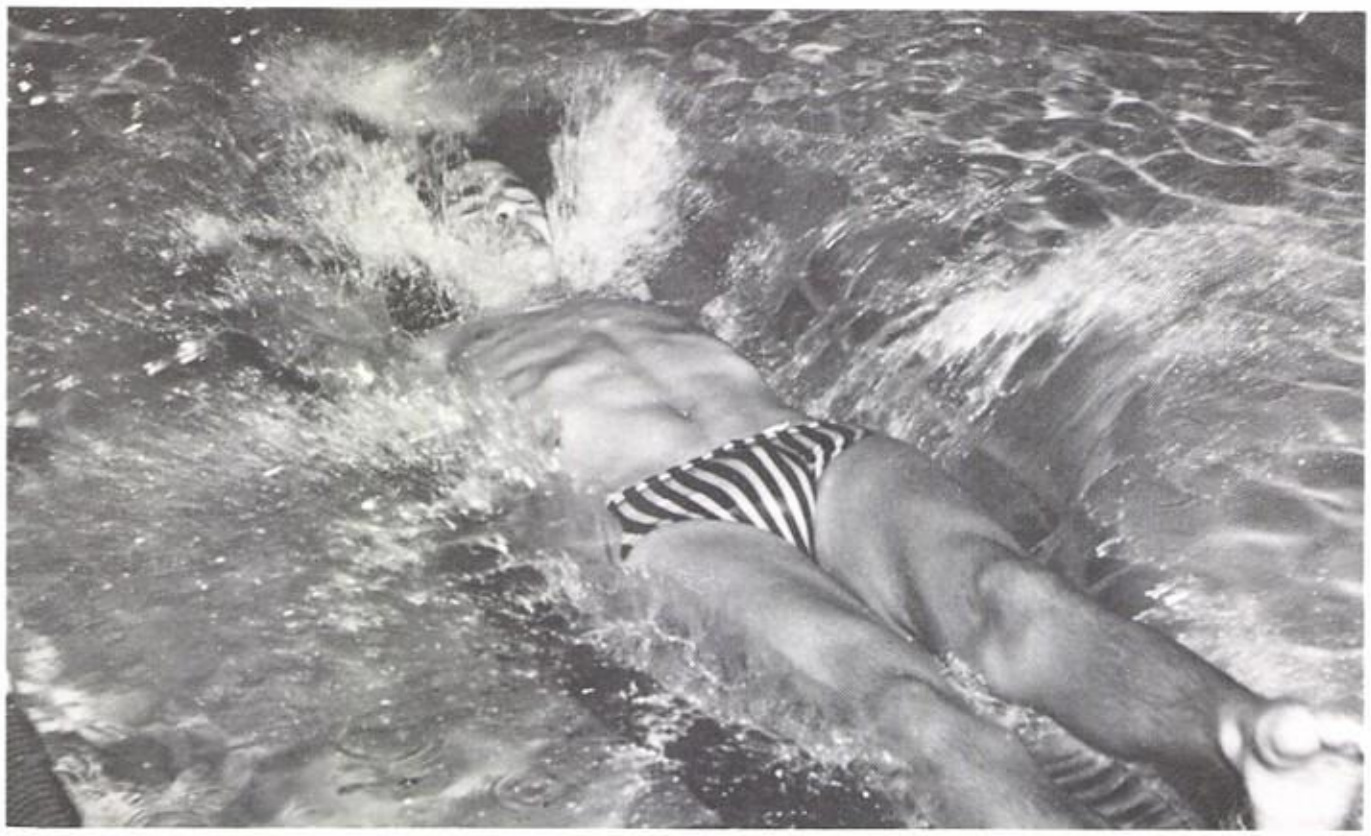
It all began when we started to build so much more than a float... and then the Monday night meetings. Thanks so much for all your efforts... in making my year all that it was.



Some night all the Lahser Alumni at Michigan will have to get together to remember the past and celebrate the future.

It's not really a goodbye to our friendship - just our friendship at Lahser. Since we're all striving to be "grown up", we must accept these changes... but I'm convinced that's only a change for the better.

Take care of yourself and those you touch,
the best of everything
love,
Ann



Chris,
Well our Senior year is ending, so many memories. I have to remember. It's getting closer to the time we all have to leave & begin to build new lives for ourselves. May life may your highest goals! I wish you a beautiful new life always
Best of luck at Michigan
Love & Mornights
Claudia

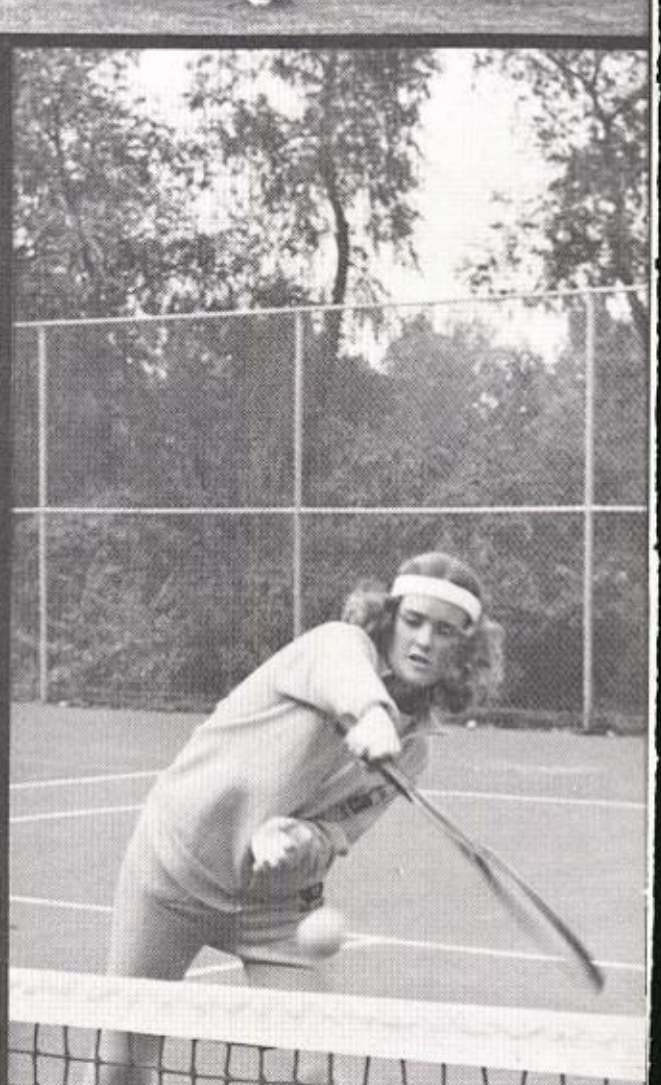
Chris,

What can I say to you, you brat. You know I'm just kidding we always say sweet nothing to each other. It's all in fun - right! Now I'm really serious when I say that it's been really fun knowing you this year and we really have had some good times to remember. For instance in front of the school before Sadie Hawkins, juggin' down the peppermint snowcones. And when we went to Mario's - ~~[illegible]~~ Strohs is the best.

I've really had a great time this year and I'll cherish all the memories, including lunch.

Lots of Love,
Kathy
"Pit"



Chris,
This year has really been a riot! We became friends through Student Assembly — "Council." I guess that the float brought us really close as friends. I'll never forget all the things we did for Student Council. I'll never forget this year. I'll always remember the memories. Good luck always in all you do! Your a great guy a

The Rainbow is more beautiful than the pot at the end of it because the rainbow is now and the pot never turns out to be quite what it expected.

Donald Arbour
"Experience hath shown, that even under the best forms of government those entrusted with power have, in time, and by slow operations perverted it into tyranny.
"Some men look at constitutions with sanctimonious reverence, and deem them too sacred to be touched. They ascribe to the preceding age a wisdom more than human, and suppose what they did to be beyond amendment. But I know that laws and institutions must go hand in hand with the progress of the human mind.
"Nothing then is unchangeable but the inherent and unalienable rights of man."
Thomas Jefferson
"When I am the candidate, I run the campaign."
Richard M. Nixon, November 1970

So on and on I go
The seconds tick the time out,
There's so much left to know
And I'm on the road to find out.
Cat Stevens

David "Flea" Bartz Jr.
Do what you can,
You can't do any more,
Say what you believe,
You'll never sound "funny,"
Think your own thoughts,
You'll keep yourself free,
Look ahead to the future,
You waste time looking back,
If it looks bad now,
Then it can't get any worse.
I've done what I could,
I've enjoyed where I've been.
I've thought these thoughts through,
over and over again.
I've taken my place,
at the front of the line.
The view is better up here.
... besides ...
Up here I can decide for myself ...
when to Go, or to Stop.

Dianne Beal
Did you ever want to save a moment forever? Each day, each month, and every year has gone too fast. There are so many moments I want to keep. The time has come to change the pattern and find others to enjoy.

Barb Beckett
"Our life cannot end
We must live and enjoy life
True love will never come undone
We must be strong and hang on to what we have and it will never be lost. Be happy and we will conquer all loneliness together, for we will make it."
Rick Proehl

Patricia Bergeron
share your thoughts
there's nothing you can hide
she was dying to survive
M. Jagger/K. Richard
Let me flow into the ocean,
Let me back to the sea,
Let me be stormy and let me be calm,
Let the tide in, and set me free.
P. Townshend
When you've loved someone dearly
it's so hard not to regret Memories that have faded
suddenly you can't forget
S. Winwood/J. Capaldi
alot of people
did except me as is I melt and fold
into a being
As we expose ourselves to millions, let us all grow in our sincerity and understanding of the human's delicate emotions, and treat one another with the sensitivity fragile objects require, for:
personalities are to blossom,
not to be cramped in hatred.
I thank my friends for their kindness. I dedicate my love to them, and I wish them undaunted peace. Thank you. I love you.
Good bye.

ADVICE TO TRAVELERS

A burro once, sent by express, his shipping ticket on his bridle, ate up his name and his address, and in some warehouse, standing idle, he waited till he like to died.

The moral hardly needs the showing: Don't keep things locked up deep inside — say who you are and where you're going.

There are those among you who seek the talkative through fear of being alone. The silence of aloneness reveals to their eyes their naked selves and they would escape.

And there are those who talk, and without knowledge or fore-thought reveal a truth which they themselves do not understand. And there are those who have the truth within them, but they tell it not in words.

Roger Colten

All that is gold does not glitter,
Not all those who wander are lost;
The old that is strong does not whither,
Deep roots are not reached by the frost.
From the ashes a fire shall be woken,
A light from the shadows shall spring;
Renewed shall be blade that was broken,
The crownless again shall be king.

Life is divided into three terms — that which was, which is and which will be. Let us learn from the past to profit by the present and from the present to live better for the future. I would especially like to thank PICKLE for being the only one I can see eye to eye with and talk heart to heart with. BEAR for bringing me sunshine on a rainy day. STICKS for making me feel ten feet tall and making life a song worth singing. E.S. for being by pal through my ups and downs. ARTFUL DODGER for listening to what I have to say and hearing what I mean. COAL for twelve years of roars and jokes. LETS GO LAHSER for being the great person and friend I have found you to be and CHEERLEADERS for being my second family for five years.

The past is full of great memories of friends and all the laughs and good times we have shared. Each memory is something very special to me for I know I will never live through it again. I know I will never forget the Cider Mill, "it's no joke," Pasquales, Asti Spumante, falling curtain rod, "Funnier then hell," holys, "Bunky and Bear Flash in Paris," Chameal, Boozin', Mateesh and Mac — the four stooges, "You've Got A Friend," free form, "Want my autograph?!" the switch, groovis maximus, Okies York, P.C. and the Ice Capades, "I Never Promised You A Rose Garden," Strawberries, Sparty's horn, you know how it is when you're in love! Toughie and Spanky, "Oh Captain — you're home," Scrapbook, January 12, 1974, Surprise November 18th, the ride home from Lansing, Queenie on 13 mile road, Pea and Pod, tickles, "We love ——," the many hello rockers," and last but not least MAVERICKS!!

As I reflect back on the past three years of my life many memories come to mind. A combination of sad, happy, and in-between ... all which I suppose are typical of this time span of my life. Happenings of the past, present, and hopes for the future easily come to mind, and I hope all who are involved know and remember who they are.
Sincere thoughts and thanks to all who have made these years the greatest, they hold many moments which are rewarding to me in many ways.

The most meaningful thing I can leave behind is this poem that I found in my senior year. People are beginning to see what it means ...
Naturalism
is easier than playing games with one's identity
here yesterday gone today back again tomorrow.
stop going through changes never being yourself except on rainy days or days you decide to stay in the house.
some people die unreal never ever knowing naturalism
as the reason for living,
— the cause.
... because to be truly free is not being what you want to be but being what you are.

Three years of good times, bad times, and hard work. Weekend skiing, Knubs Knob, trips to Detroit [T.Q.], Betsy and concerts, all day and all nite proms, C's and F's — real D's, mothers and yauzas, blue cars on dirt roads, cidar mills and getting lost, "Was Toronto a mistake, C?" "Was New Years Eve the best night of your life, M..?" INDEED!

As I grow older and realize the ones I love best are the ones I loved first.

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

Photographs And Memories
Photographs and memories
Christmas Cards you sent to me
All that I have are these
To remember you
Memories that come at night
Take me to another time
Back to a happier day
When I called you mine
But we sure had a good time
When we started way back when Morning walks and bedroom talks
Oh how I loved you then
Summer skys and lullabies
Nights we couldn't say good bye
And of all of the things that we knew
Not a dream survived
Photographs and memories
All the love you gave to me
Somehow it just can't be true
That's all I've left of you.

In thinking of the past three years I sadly realize that my best friends have been business machines and typewriter erasers. How the time has seemed to rush by, leaving so few chances to get to know or enjoy the people who mean so much to me. I expect to pass through this world but once; any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Étienne de Grellet

Christopher J. —

How do you start one of these things? Remember what or Remember when: Knightcap — Benjy + fish — Konan parties — chartreuse — peppermint schnapps — back seats — surprise parties — "The group" — the not-group — Banff • wish I went — the Holiday Dance 4 kinds of beer — Prom — Champagne — Cedar Point — ..... Thanks for everything it was an -ah- interesting year for a bunch of burn-outs. Keep it up, + Keep in touch — after the summer things will change but whatever happens good luck always in everything.

You are a real Chauvinist - I mean honest to God you're bad. There's no need for me to tell you good luck and all that because I know you're aggressive enough to get what you want - which is my book is a good trait. Keep on pushing.

P.S. Drop by and see me at school.

Dear Partridge,

Now that the famous team of Olson, Walsh, Moffatt + Gordon will be split up until after College I feel kind of sad. From the first time ~~we~~ we had drafting in East Hills with Mr. Graham, I knew I'd have a riot. Then all the crazy stuff we did to Hollenger, I will always remember. I know that we didn't learn anything but we sure did raise hell. Even though we will be at different colleges I'll always remember the fun we had.

I hope you success in everything you do.

The best archtect.

T. J.
